PASTOR'S CORNER

It was out in the middle of a soybean field. It was out of place. It was standing by itself. It stood out. Do you know what I am talking about? It was a single cornstalk. My eyes couldn't help but be drawn to it because it was standing tall in the midst of the soybeans. It was like it was saying, "Look at me. I am different. I am not like everything else around me." This got me thinking about what it means to be Christian and the importance of standing out for the right reasons. The Lord teaches us in the Gospel of Matthew that we are to be the light of the world and the salt of the earth. Both of these are essential when it comes to being representatives of the gospel. We are to be light because it shines brightest in the darkness that surrounds us. Salt because it enhances flavor and helps people to taste the goodness and faithfulness of God by our words and through our actions. It is much easier to blend in and go unnoticed, but the Lord has called us to be like the cornstalk in the middle of the soybean field. Let us all rise and stand out from the crowd and culture that surrounds us so the people will see the transforming power of the Gospel. God loves you and I do too.

Memory Verse: He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness For His name's sake.
