A Smart Way to Support Our Mission: Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCD)

Did you know you can give to WBC straight from your IRA without paying taxes on the amount?

If you are 70½ or older, you can use a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) to send money from your IRA straight to the church and that amount is generally not included in your taxable income.

Why Choose a QCD?

- Tax Savings: Lower your taxable income and make a difference at the same time.
- Meet Your RMD: If you are 73 or older, QCD gifts can count toward your Required Minimum Distribution.
- Flexible Giving: You can make a one-time gift or set up monthly transfers, up to $111,000 per year for 2026.

If you're interested, reach out to your IRA provider and ask them to send a gift directly to WBC.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Relationships are important, and they reveal the various connections we have in our lives. Parent-child relationship. Boss and employee relationship. Teacher and student relationship. Coach and athlete relationship. You can go on and on listing numerous relationships. As you grow older, your relationship spectrum can change, and it can either increase or decrease. But no matter the amount of relationships you have, meaningful relationships are important and needed.

The church is the best place to build and establish meaningful relationships. Church is more than just a Sunday morning event. Yes, much more. First and foremost, it's about our relationship with Christ, our Lord and Savior. Church should be a time to strengthen, grow, and mature in your relationship with the Lord. But Church is also about building meaningful relationships with one another, and not just in the window of time we are at Church. No, it should move outward, beyond the walls. We need to create a rhythm where we are enjoying the relationships we have in the church outside the church also. Maybe an invitation to dinner, bowling, ice cream, or anything else that allows you to connect and build meaningful relationships with one another. A simple invite can change someone's life and impact their faith journey. So, who are you inviting to do life with you? God loves you, and I do too.

Pastor Rodney

Memory Verse:

The Lord is my light and my salvation; Whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; Of whom shall I be afraid?
